His Excellency Apostolos Xyrafis
Secretary General of AICESIS

April 27, 2023

Dear Mr Apostolos Xyrafis,

It is our pleasure to inform you that the Sustainable Economic Social Development Council of Brazil was reestablished by the Presidential Decree No. 11.504 of 24 March 2023. We are thrilled to announce this exciting news and are eager to resume our activities within the association.

We understand the importance of collaborating with like-minded organizations in order to achieve our common goals, and we believe that AICESIS provides an invaluable platform for such collaboration. Therefore, we are enthusiastic to continue our partnership with AICESIS and contribute to its efforts in advancing economic, social, and environmental sustainability.

Exchanging best practices is crucial to overcoming many of the global challenges we face at present, such as climate change, poverty, and inequality due to the fact that they require coordinated and collaborative efforts from multiple institutions to achieve meaningful progress. By working together, economic and social councils and similar institutions throughout the world can pool their expertise and knowledge to develop innovative solutions and address common issues more effectively.

We would also like to express our sincere gratitude to the Deputy General Secretary for Latin America and the Caribbean, Mrs Miloushka Sboui-Racamy, for the meeting we had the previous week. It was a great opportunity to discuss our shared values and goals, and we are confident that our partnership will continue to flourish in the future.

Thank you for your ongoing support and we look forward to working closely with AICESIS in the years to come.
